

Delhi Times

Honey, I shrunk Vindu!

Nearly one million youngsters have participated in Pepsi's latest campaign, The Game, and helped Ranbir Kapoor get closer to his Pepsi. The Game, which is set in a fantasy world has all the action taking place in a castle owned by the 'Game Master' played by the original Khandaaz, Sanjay Dutt. In level two of The Game, the Game Master sends his under-sized champ, who is none other than Vindu Dara Singh to stop Ranbir from getting closer to his Pepsi. Muscular Vindu will be seen in the avatar of a one-foot tall gaming character - 'Funk-Key'!

Pepsi - The Game has three levels, each ending with a brainteaser. Three options are given for each riddle and you have to select the right answer. To play you can call or SMS 'GAME' to 093 27 27 27 or simply log on to www.youngstaan.com. Viewers can enter The Game at any level and win fun prizes including free talk-time. Those who answer correctly at all levels; stand a chance to win Rs 50 lacs by succeeding in the final tie-breaker slogan challenge. It is your chance to play The Game now.

TNN

(Contributed by Piyali Dasgupta)